FLIGHTLESS

About us

Founded in 2005 as a digital design company, we have transitioned into a full-time games studio developing our own IP.

Our substantial commercial work experience spans multi-award winning projects across museum and visitor experiences, games and moving image, online and the visual arts.

Our approach produces original looking games that have a creative approach, a player centred focus, and often involve environmental themes.

Bee Leader Worlds

Play the life of a bee, but with a little more power!

Collect sweet nectar, pollinate exquisite flowers and fill your hive as quick as you can. Use your powers to rescue creatures in distress, solve puzzles and avoid predators. Recruit bee buddies to help you and generate honey to rise up the ranks.

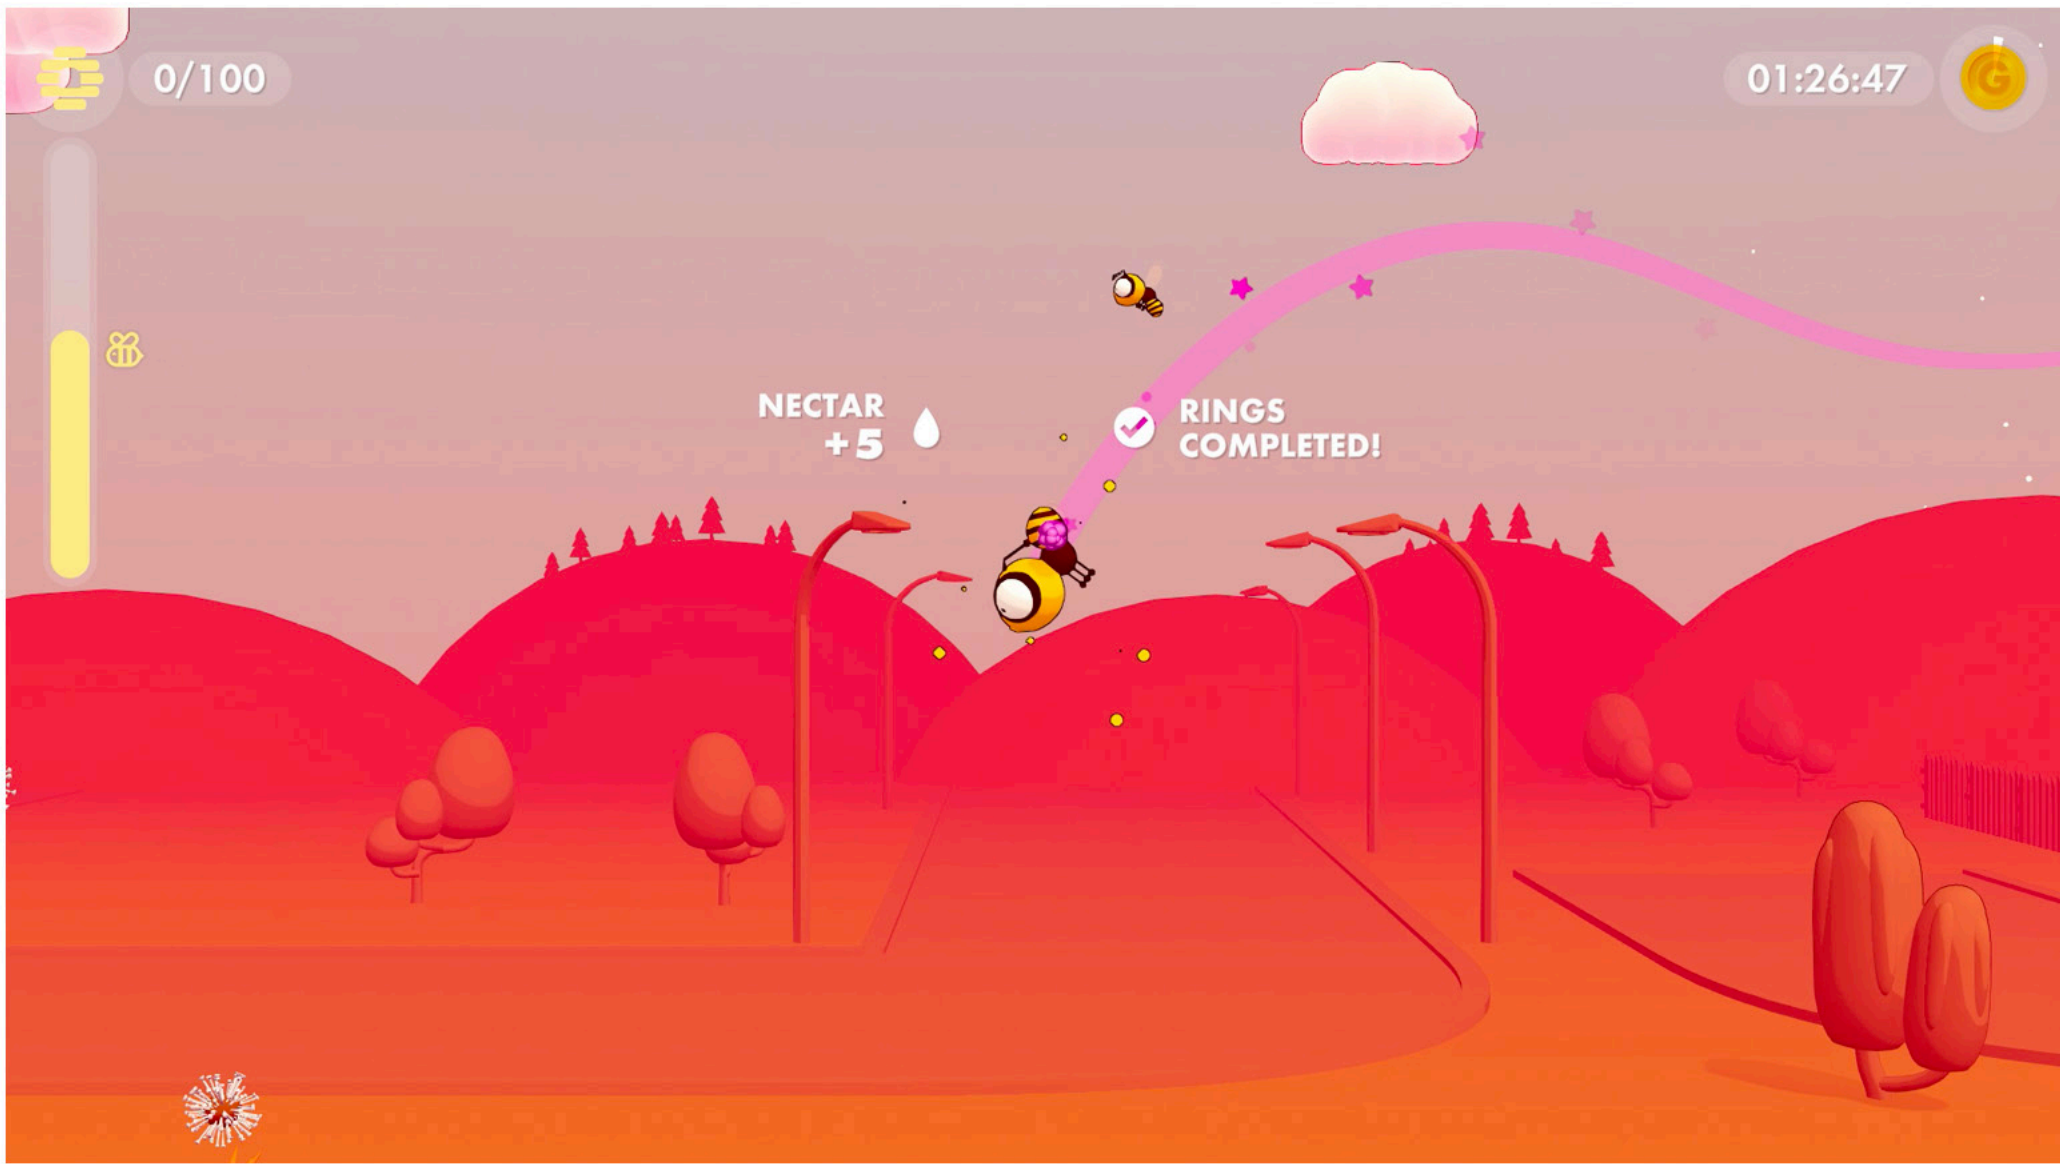

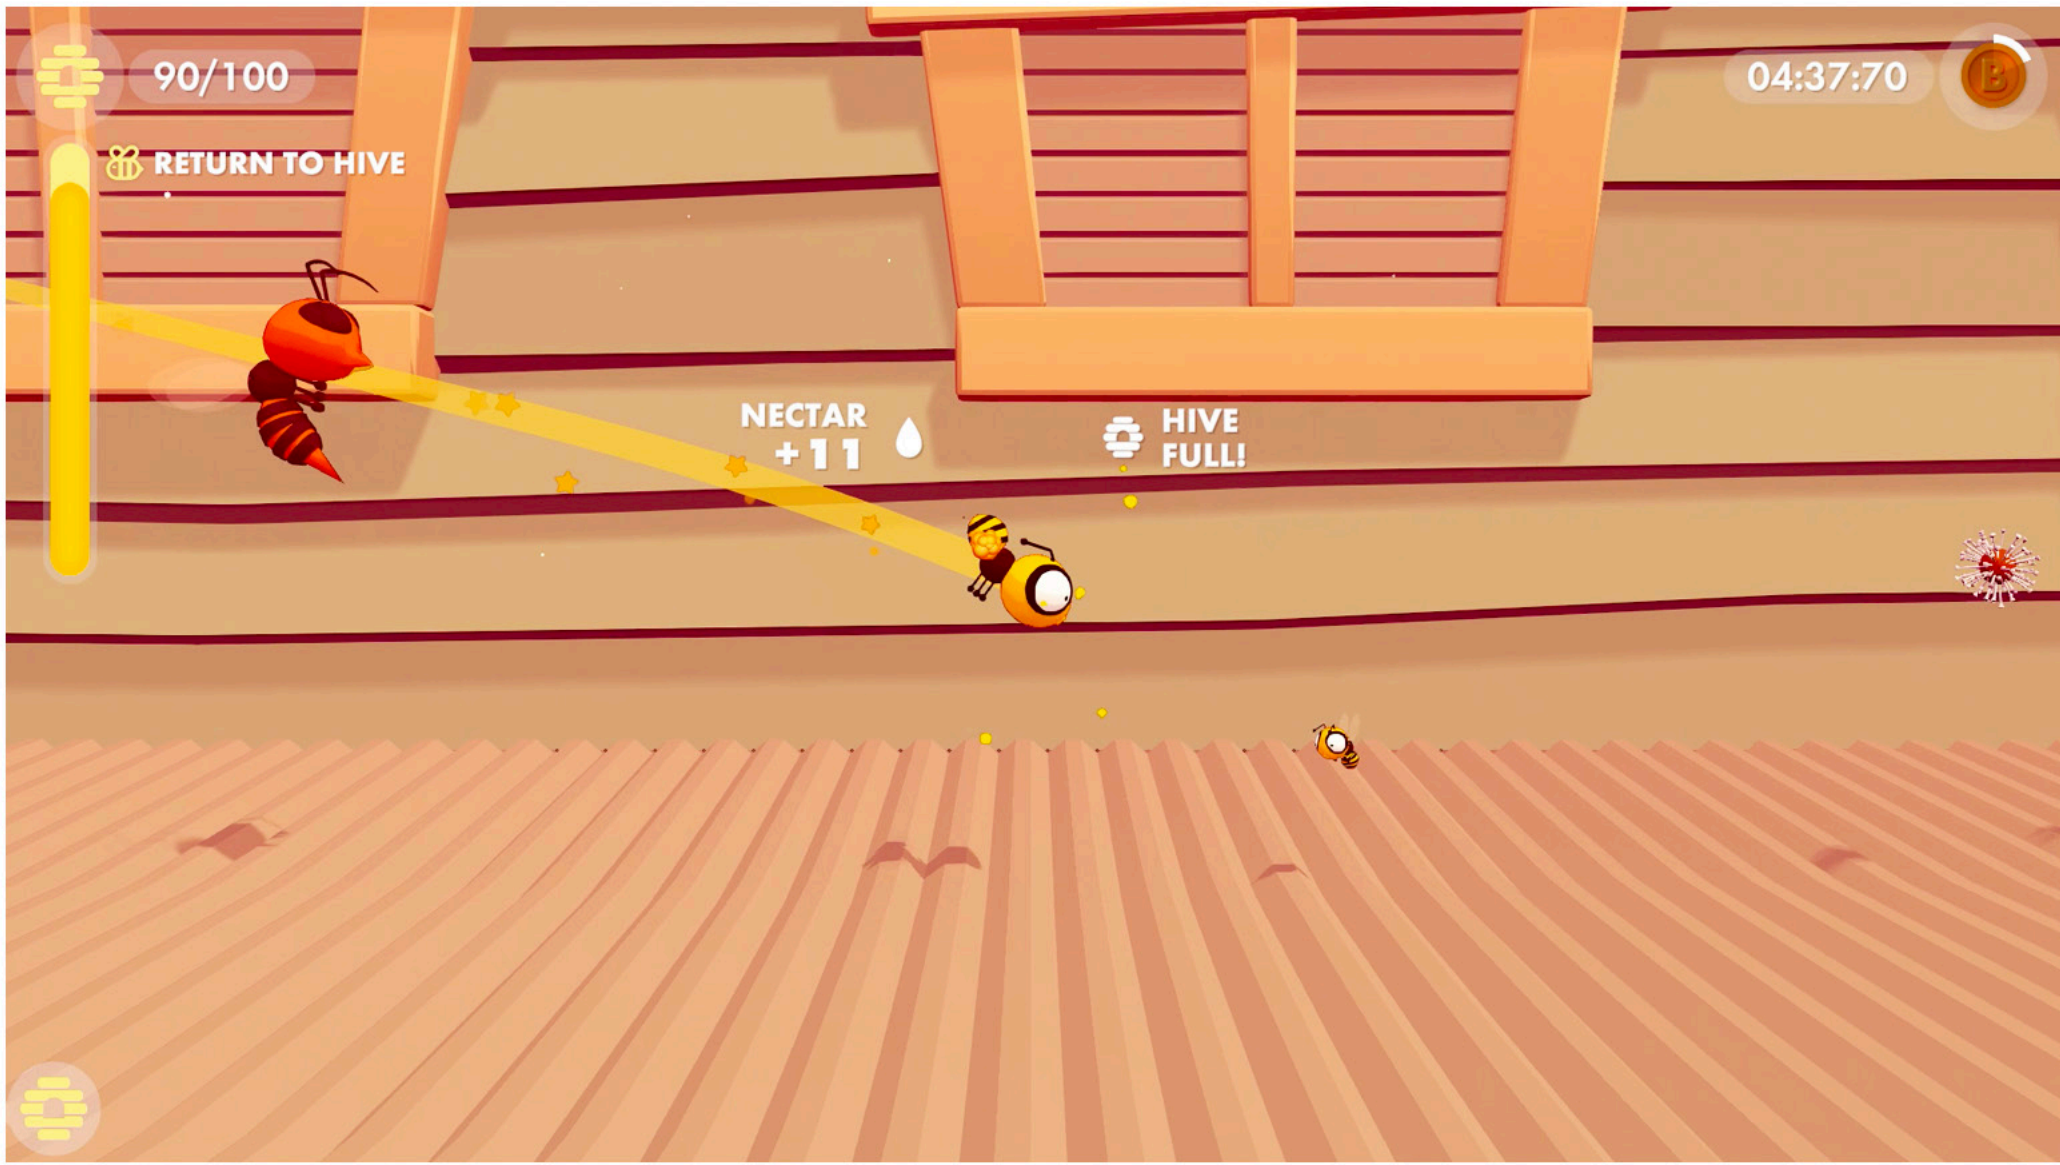

Bee Leader Worlds gameplay is a unique combination of physics, 3D side scrolling worlds and flight control mechanics. Experience the freedom of flying while having the ability to push, pull and carry objects. Explore responsive, vibrant environments at a whole new scale.

Doomsday Vault

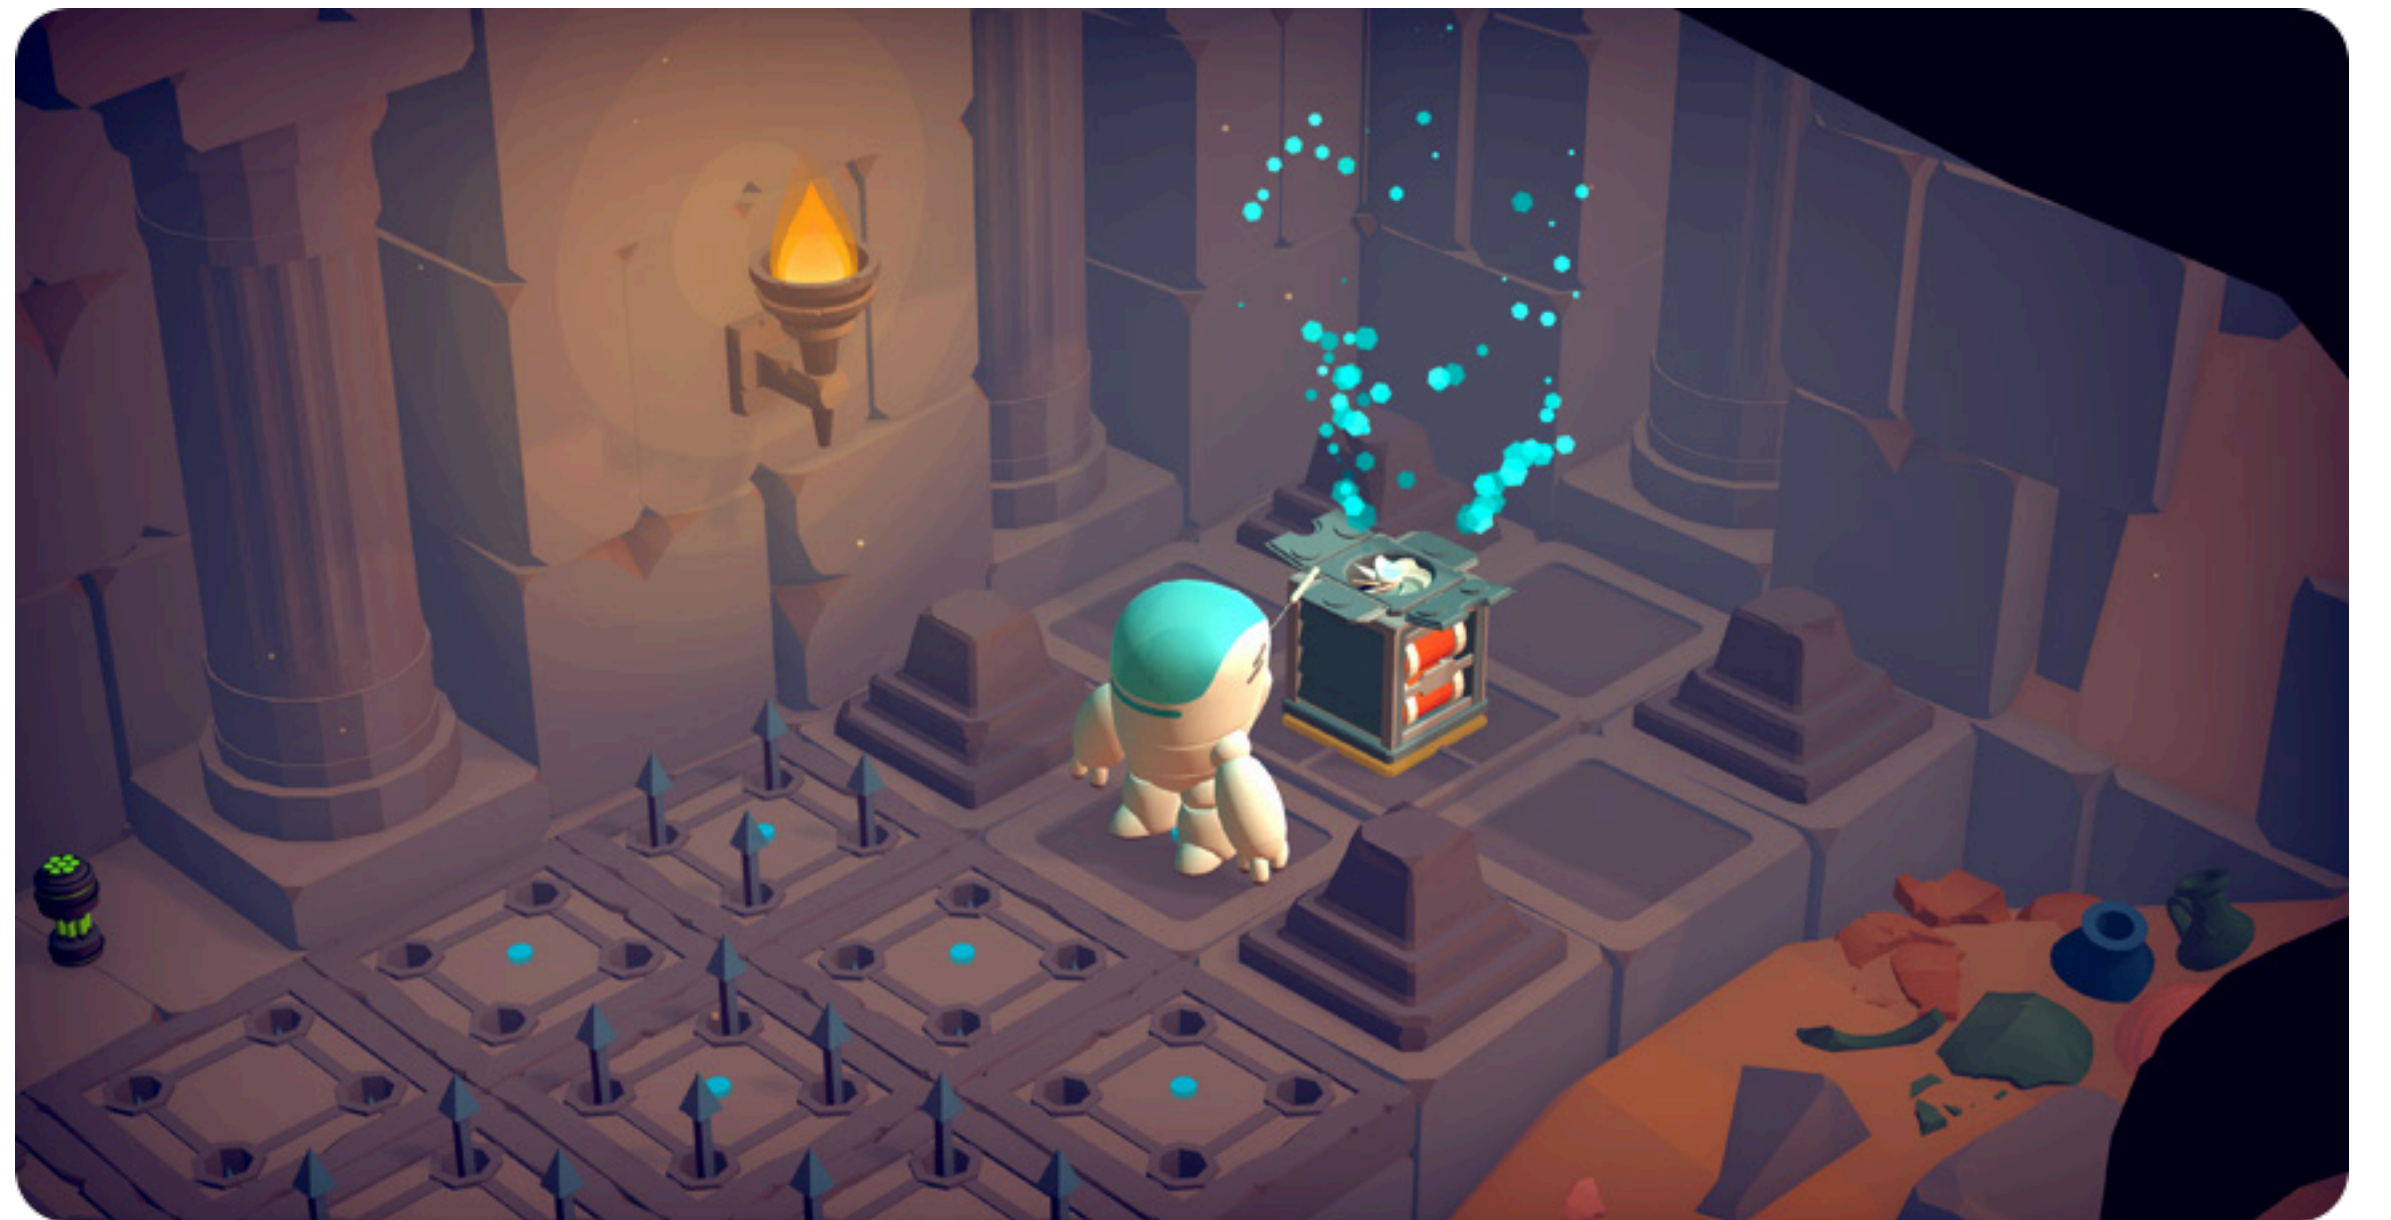

Rescue Earth's precious plants. Earth's climate has collapsed and your mission is to collect the precious remaining plant life and return it to the safety of the Doomsday Vault.

You're on a lone mission in a post-climate collapse Earth. Adventure around the world in your robotic suit and use your suit's tools and abilities to explore challenging environments. Navigate desolate landscapes, flooded cities and derelict buildings to find seeds from critical plant species and return them to the safety of the Vault. Collect nutrients, restore Carbon Eaters, collect the seeds and nurture them in the Vault to create a sustainable crop.

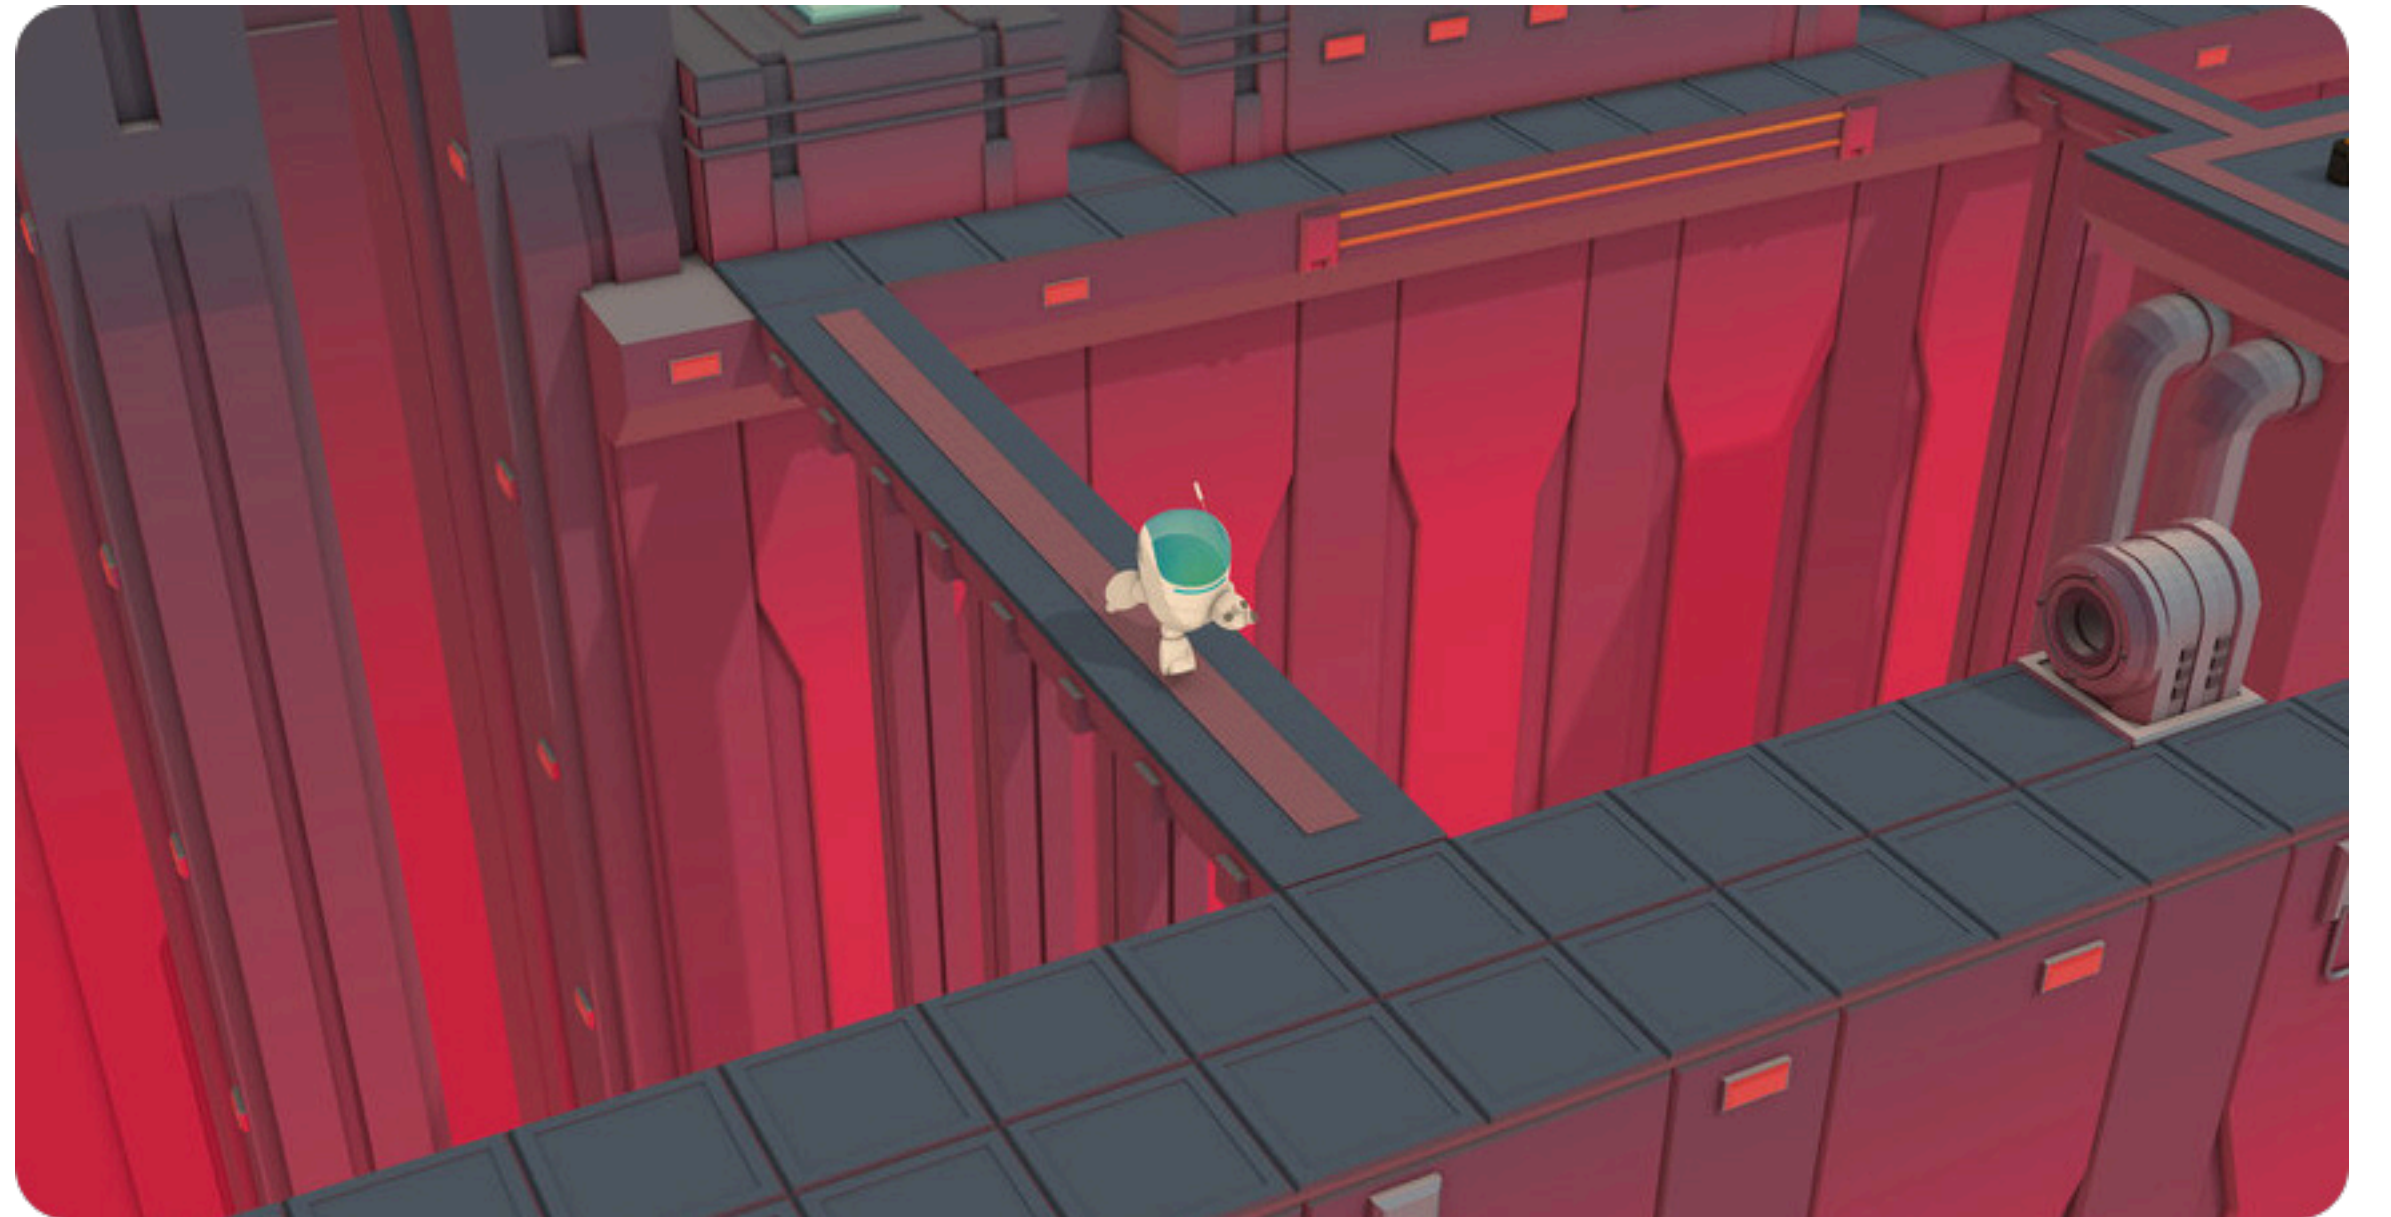

Available now exclusively for iPhone®, iPad®, Apple TV® & Mac® on Apple ArcadeSM

Element

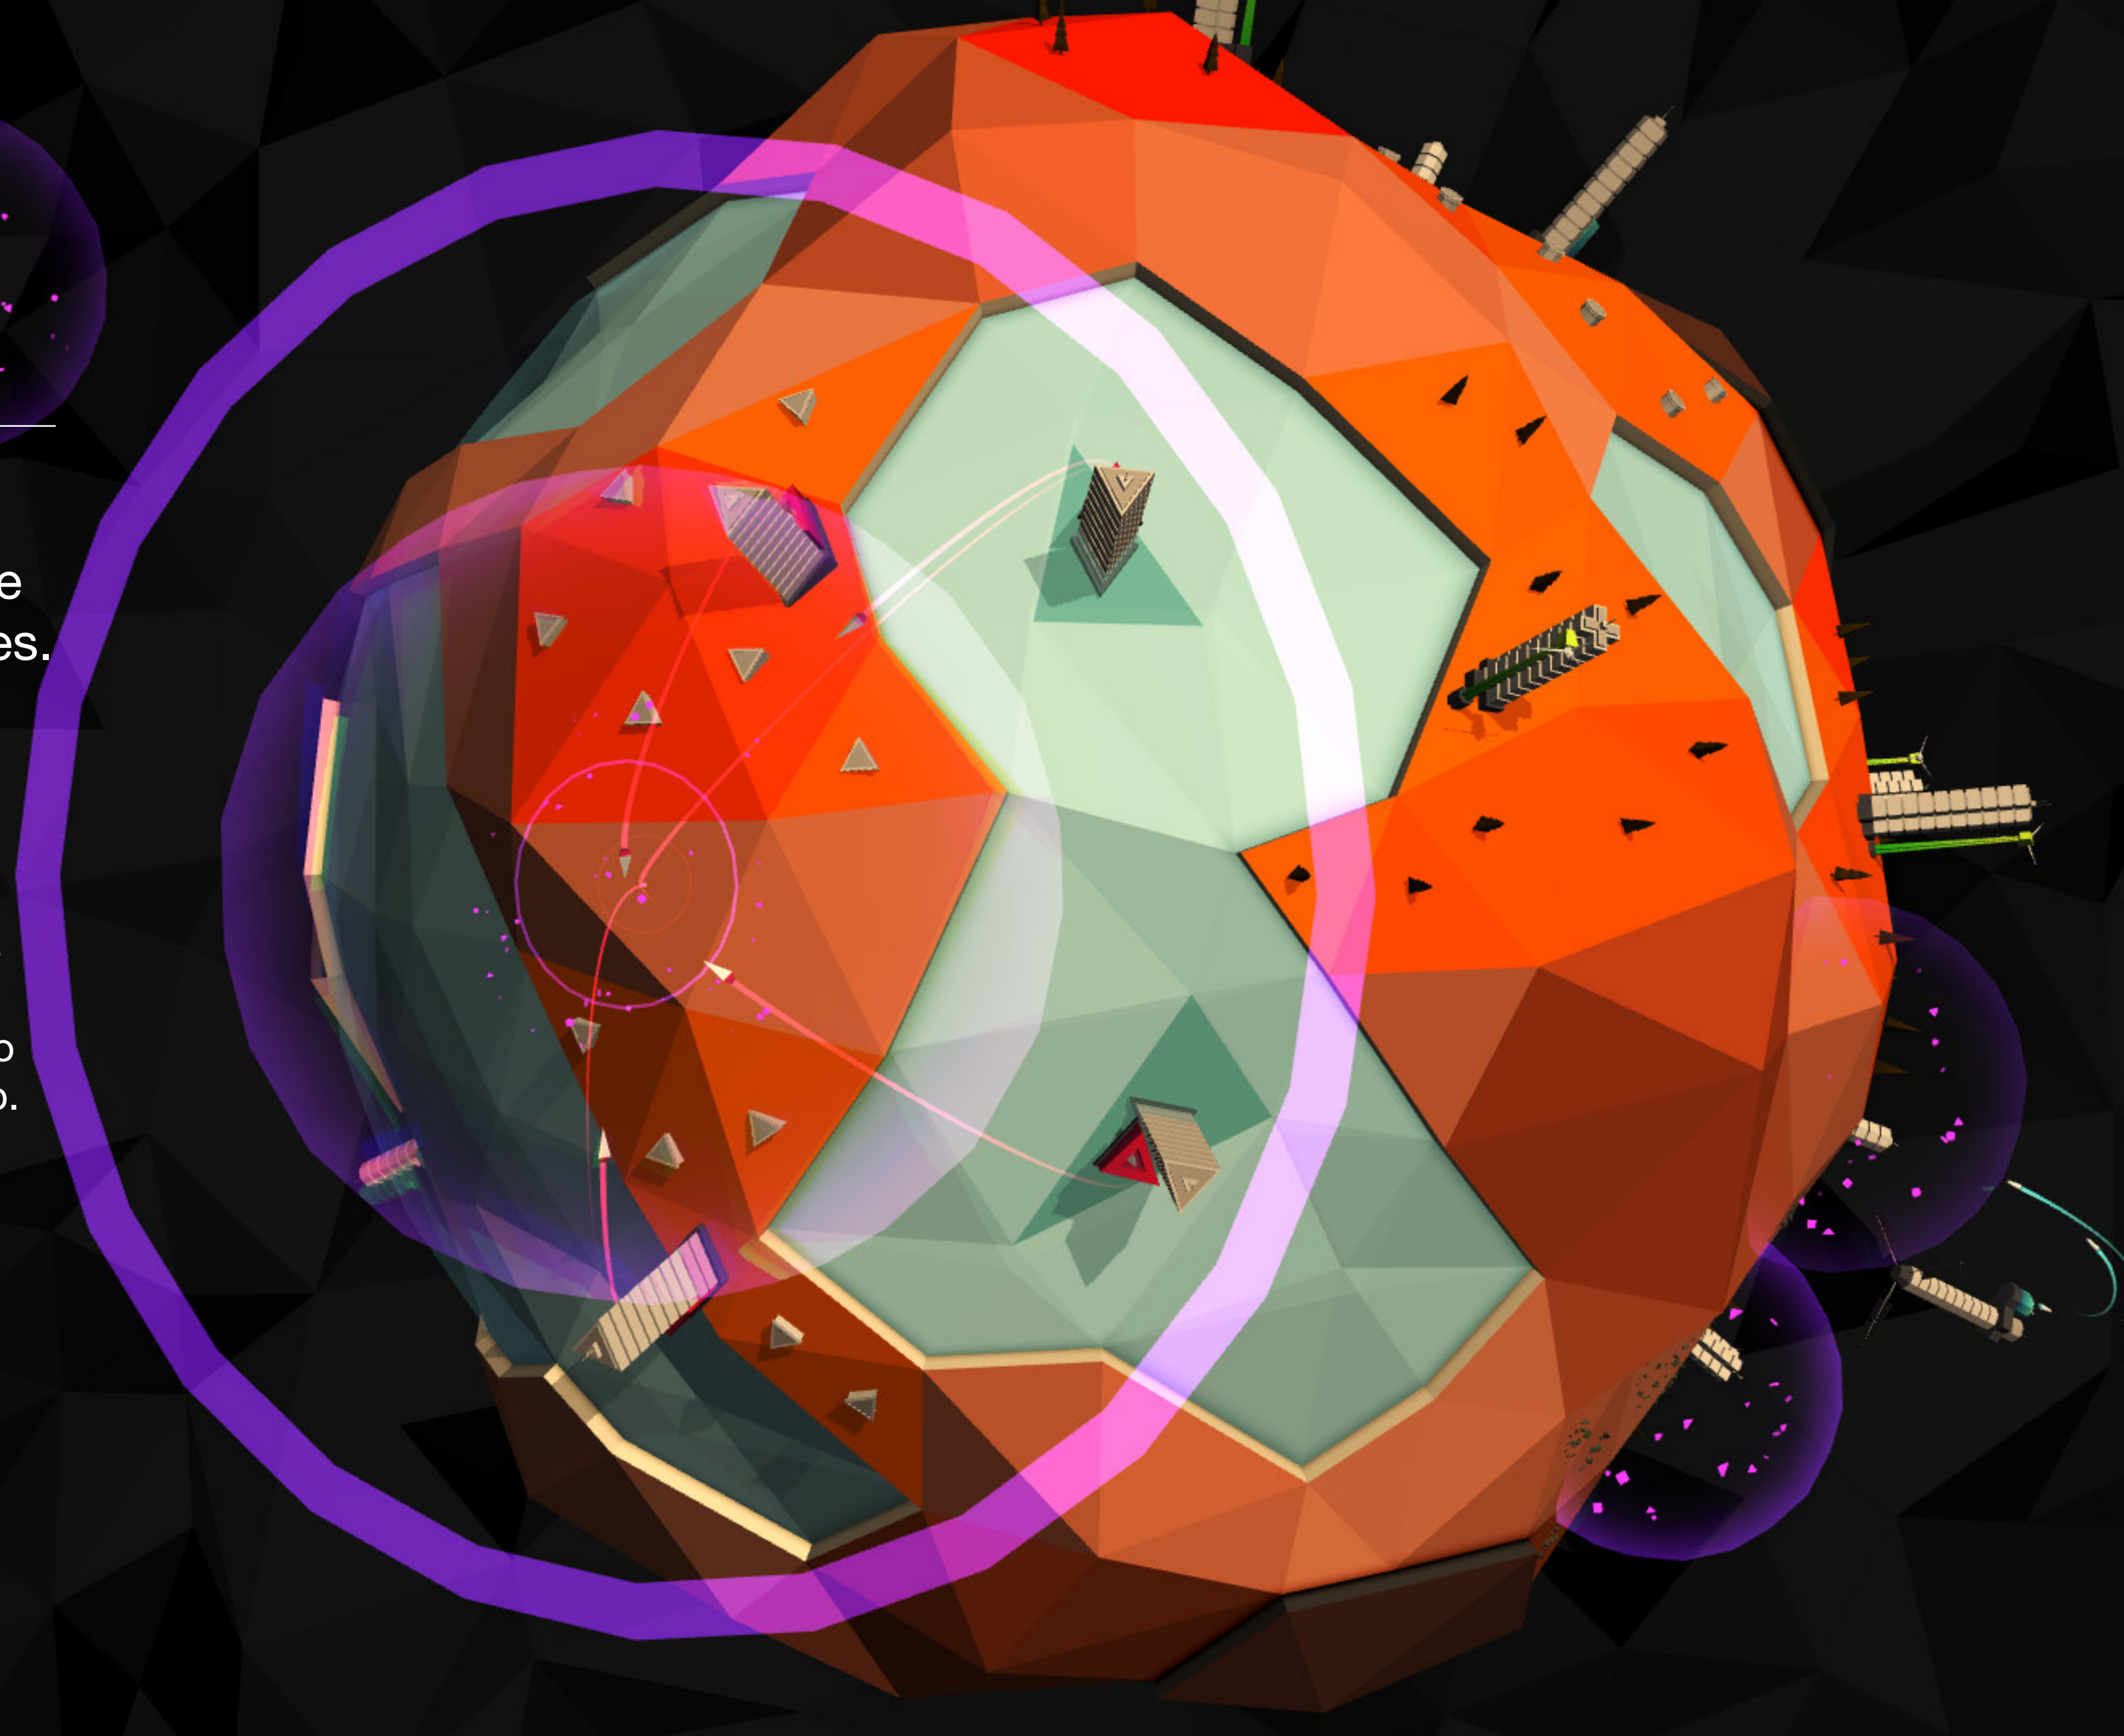

Element is a realtime strategy space game for people who don't have time to play realtime strategy space games.

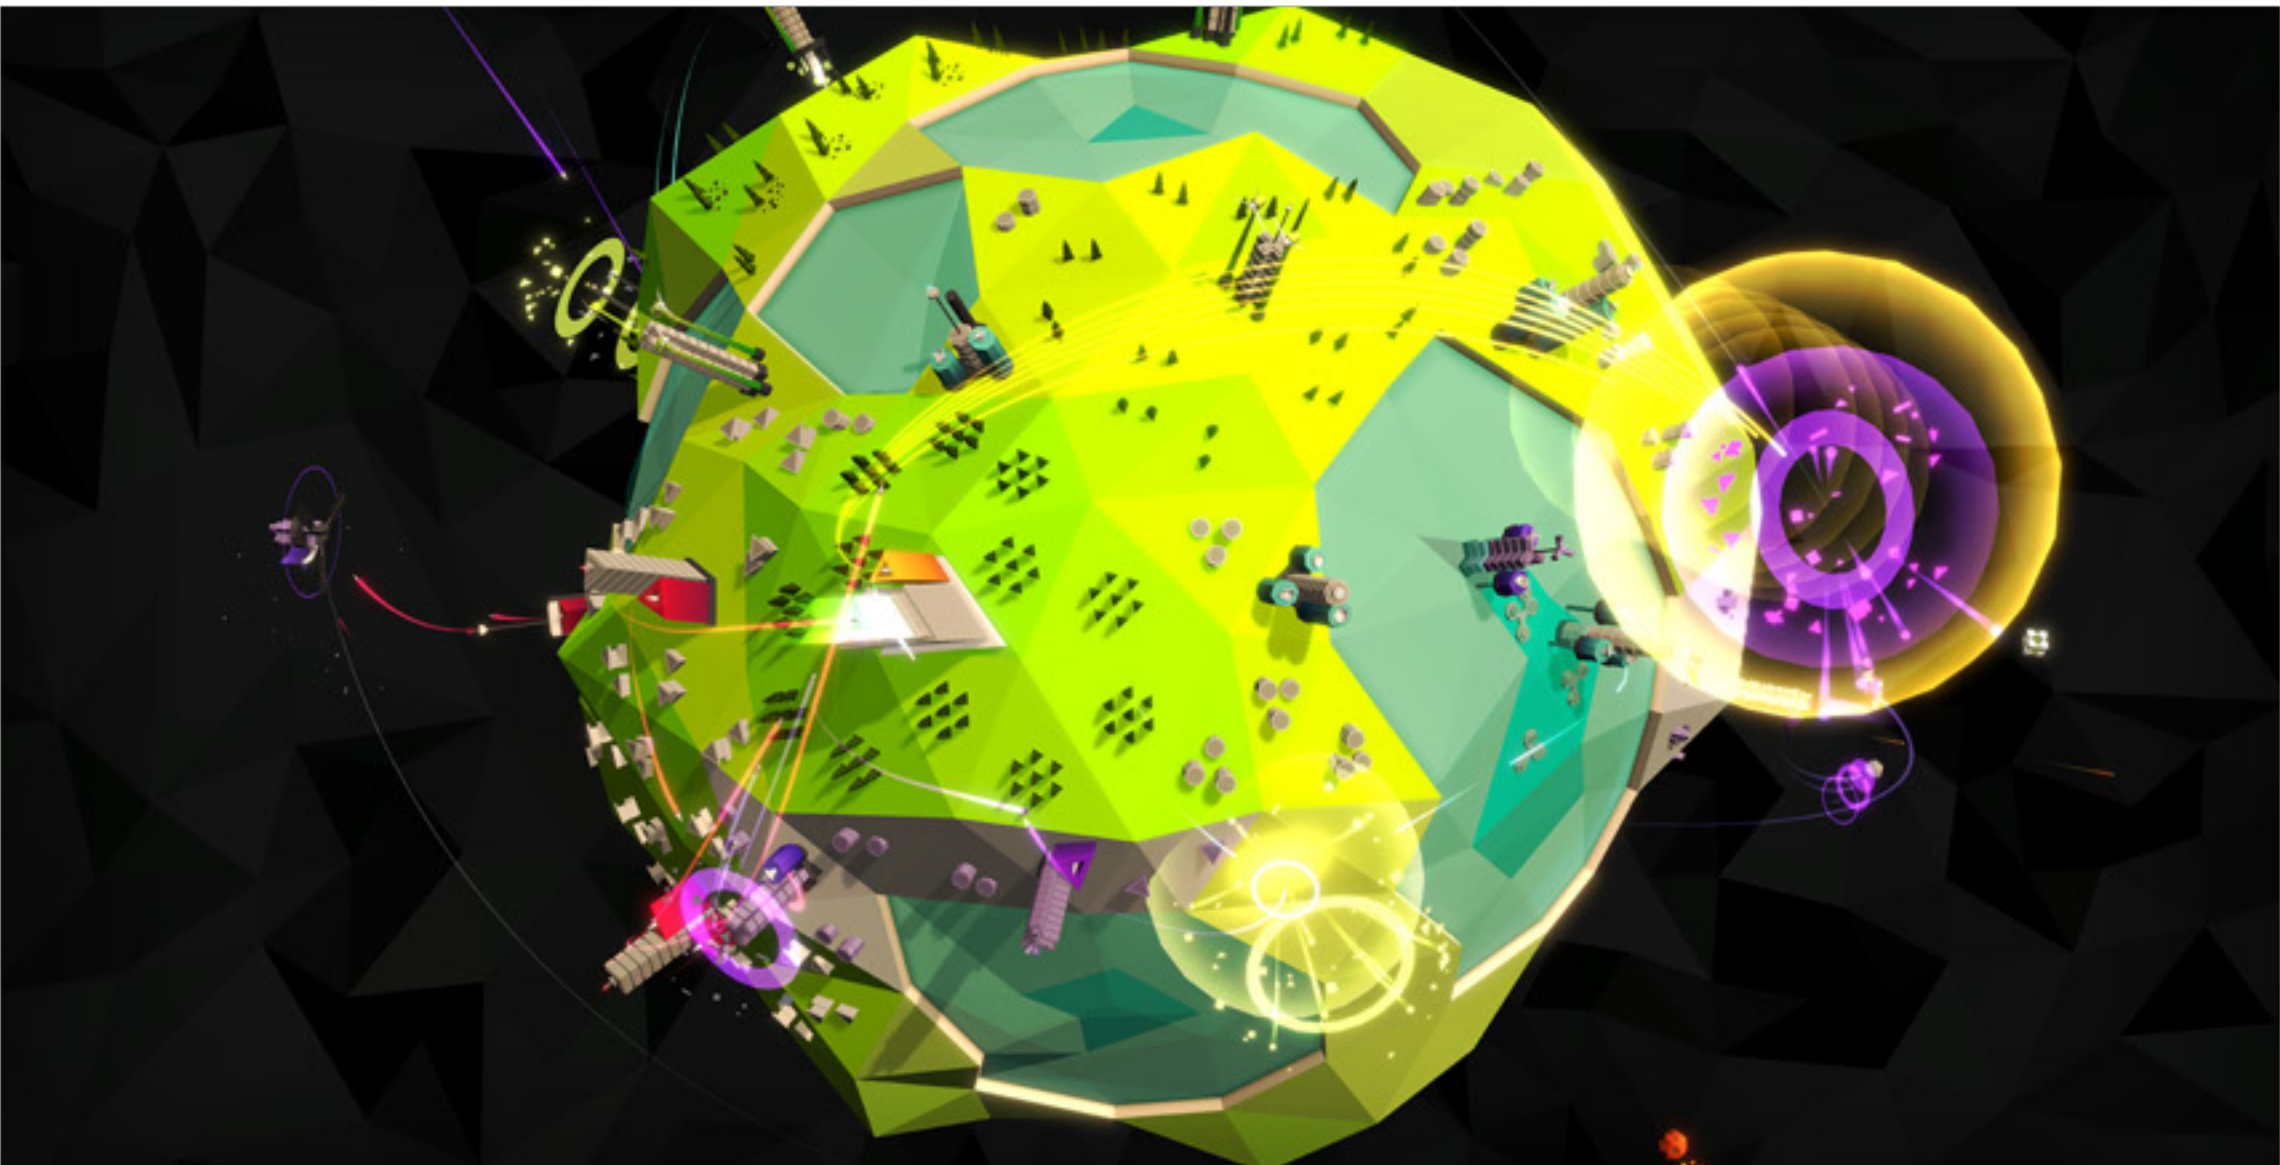

Element is a visually stunning realtime strategy space game with a focus on sharp, accessible gameplay.

Element is for lovers of beautifully crafted, original looking games. It is for people who are into space and strategy games but don't have hours of time to invest. It's also for gamers who enjoy launching missiles and blowing things up.

Bee Leader

The bees need you! Become a Bee Leader and help the bees fill their hives with honey.

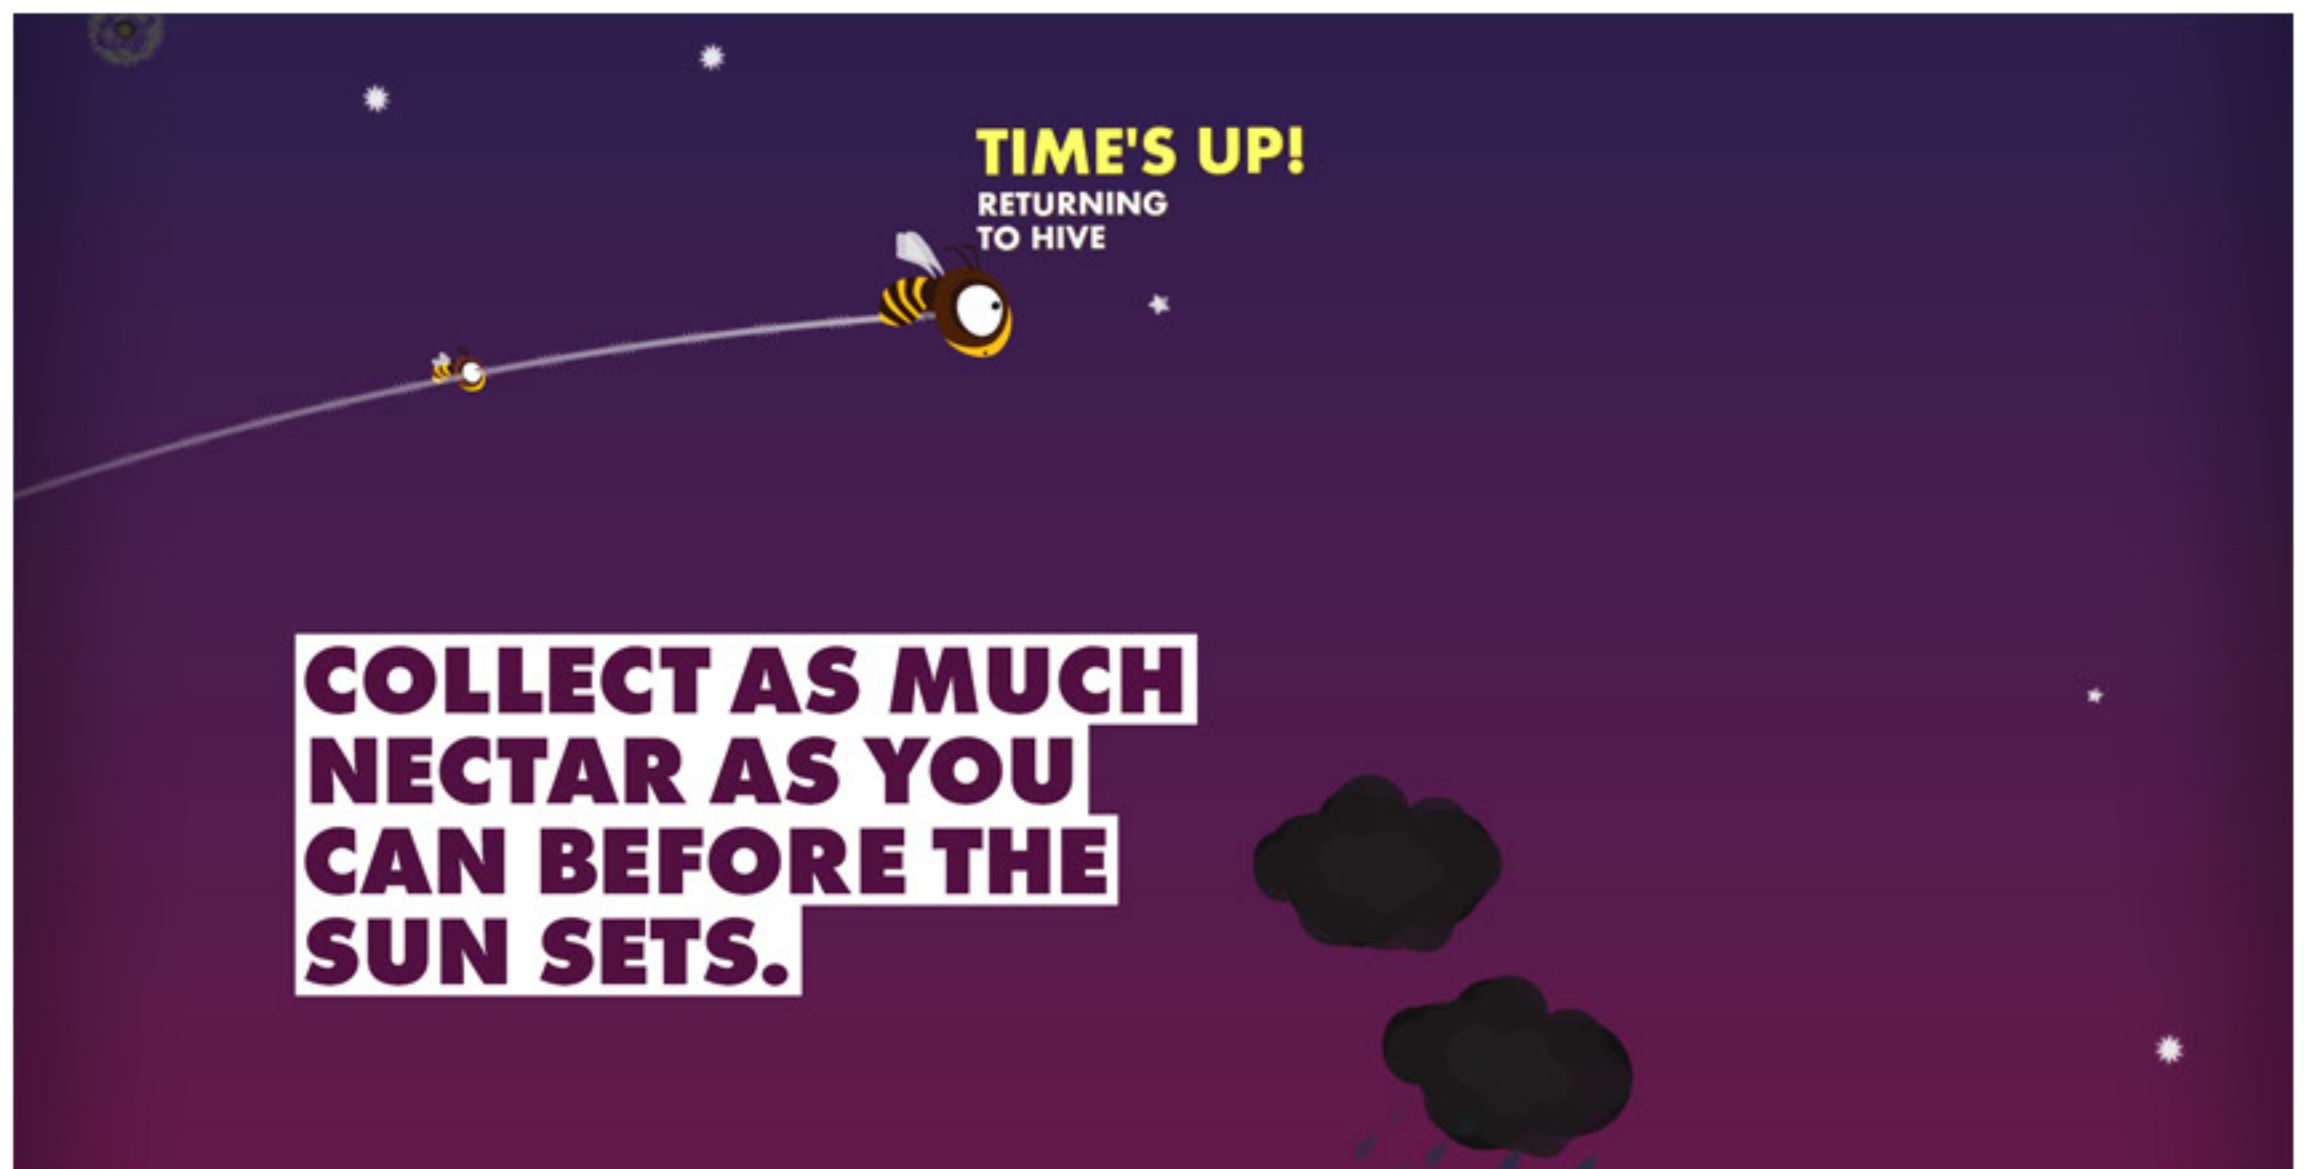

Fly around the world and hover over flowers to collect nectar. Look out for enemies and bad weather! Collect as much nectar as you can before the sun sets. The faster you get nectar back to your hive the more honey you'll make! Pick up plenty of bonuses along the way – nectar, honey, time, and bee buddies. The more bee buddies you find, the more nectar you'll collect. More nectar means more honey – sweet!

iPhone®, iPad®, Mac®, Android™,
Windows Phone®, Windows®
